

JOIN THE CONFERENCE ON CONSUMER FINANCE LAW!

The Conference on Consumer Finance Law (CCFL), founded in 1926, is a nonprofit corporation that encourages study and research in the field of consumer finance law, makes available information on the history, changes in, and current status of laws and regulations that govern consumer finance, and promotes, through publications and educational programs, the sound development of consumer finance law, which includes laws affecting all types of financial institutions and businesses that offer consumer credit. Among other things, the CCFL presents The Frederick Fisher Memorial Program held in conjunction with the American Bar Association's Consumer Financial Services Committee, publishes the Consumer Finance Law Quarterly Report, sponsors two Consumer Financial Services Conferences annually, and offers other programs and webinars throughout the year.

REGULAR MEMBERSHIP: Annual membership in the CCFL is $95, which entitles you to a year's subscription of a mailed copy of the Consumer Finance Law Quarterly Report (Quarterly Report) and information about the legal education programs that the CCFL sponsors. Members also have electronic access to articles in current and past issues of the Quarterly Report. Sign up online at www.ccflonline.org/membership.cfm or complete and mail this form with your check in the amount of $95 made payable to "CCFL" to the address below.

IN-HOUSE COUNSEL: The CCFL offers in-house counsel of financial services companies a non-paying regular membership, which includes electronic access to current and past issues of the Quarterly Report. To request this membership, please sign up at www.ccflonline.org/membership.cfm.

LAW FIRMS: The CCFL offers an annual membership to law firms for a group rate of $250, which provides a regular membership to an unlimited number of the firm's attorneys, including electronic access to current and past issues of the Quarterly Report. To request this membership, please contact VP – Membership Scott Hyman at Scott.Hyman@wbd-us.com or Chairman Eric Johnson at ejohnson@hudco.com.
