

JOIN THE CONFERENCE ON CONSUMER FINANCE LAW!

The Conference on Consumer Finance Law, founded in 1926, is a nonprofit corporation that encourages study and research in the field of consumer finance law, makes available information on the history, changes in, and current status of laws and regulations that govern consumer finance, and promotes, through publications and educational programs, the sound development of consumer finance law, which includes laws affecting all types of financial institutions and businesses that offer consumer credit. Among other things, the CCFL presents The Frederick Fisher Memorial Program held in conjunction with the American Bar Association's Consumer Financial Services Committee, publishes the Consumer Finance Law Quarterly Report, sponsors two Consumer Financial Services Conferences annually, and offers other programs and webinars throughout the year.

IN-HOUSE COUNSEL: The CCFL offers in-house counsel of financial services companies a non-paying regular membership, which includes electronic access to current and past issues of the Consumer Finance Law Quarterly Report. To request this membership, please sign up at <https://www.ccflonline.org/in-house-counsel/>.
